

Step 1

Start at www.ssa.gov

- Should see a set of pictures- CLICK on the Medicare Picture
- On the left hand side of the screen, click on "How to apply online for just Medicare"
- Click on Medicare Enrollment box
- Scroll down about half way down the page until you see bright BLUE box that says "APPLY for MEDICARE ONLY"- click on box
- I am applying for myself- check yes

Step 2

Social Security Account- Creation or Log in

- Do you have a my SS account_ (if yes, then log in)
- If No:
- Will need to create a MY SS account
- SAVE THIS user ID and password- IMPORTANT TO KEEP SAFE
- You will receive an email verification code to verify it is you
- Confirm Email address screen and use confirmation code to log in.
- Fill in all Info requested-
- *Select YES to Medicare PART B
- Answer ALL needed info that follows:

IN THE REMARKS BOX, PLEASE MAKE SURE TO TYPE IN THE FOLLOWING:

"Requested effective date xx/xx/xxxx (insert your respective date)

*-If you are in your IEP government you will not choose your effective date.

-If you are in your SEP you WILL choose your effective date(ask your advisor if you are in IEP or SEP if you do not know.

- Answer employment verification dates and benefit information as needed
- KEEP THE RE_ENTRY number safe somewhere until you receive your Medicare ID card.
- Review info you entered and the digitally sign. (just type your name)

SAVE

SAVE ANY
CONFIRMATIONS
or COMPLETED STATEMENTS.

Step 3

Final Confirmation

- Online Enrollment Complete
- You will receive a correspondence from SSA in 2 weeks via snail mail
- Any additional they need any further info from you they will request it that letter.
- You should receive your Medicare ID card about 2-4 weeks from that letter
- Your My SS account you created will have your Medicare number visible in it within 15-21 business days.

Additional Contact

<https://www.ssa.gov/agency/contact/>

if you need to reach out to Social Security directly, there are multiple ways to get support, this website will provide you with resources you need: